APPROPRIATE EASTER SERVICE RENDERED

At Methodist Church Sunday. Building was Beautifully Decorated for the Occasion.

LARGE EASTER OFFERING RECEIVED

Possibly one of the most interesting and original Easter services ever seen in this city took place at the M. E. Church South, Sunday Morning. The entire morning services were devoted to this program. The building was beautifully decorated in colors of purple and white, potted plants were used in forming a background and proved to be a very attractive feature, banners suitably inscribed for the occasion were effectively used in beautifying the building. A reception committee of twelve from the various classes wearing badges with the word "welcome" inscribed were stationed at the doors and greeted each attendant with cheerful smile and a glad hand. Others of the committee pinned a carnation on each arrival as they entered the door.

Bursts of instrumental music brought all into the church, at which time the rendering of this program was taken up, which consisted of songs, recitations and instrumental selections. The opening song by the choir, followed by prayer by Rev. W. A. Grant. The story of the resurrection was told in reading by Philathene class taken from Matthew 28th, Chapter after which each class in turn rendered recitations and the little children carried baskets filled with Easter Eggs to the foot of the cross where the Superintendent was ready to receive the baskets and placed the eggs on the cross in shape to spell the words "Jesus" and "Easter." There were 265 present and the offering was $414.88. This offering was surprising but the greatest surprise came from the class of small girls who contributed the amazing sum of $50.00. The total amount was turned over to the Church Building Committee to be applied on the outstanding indebtedness for the building. This church is to be congratulated upon having such a Sunday School. The Wesley class has enrolled 127 members and are reaching for 150. The Barracks and Philathene classes are doing some splendid work. Under the able instruction of the Superintendent, Paul M. Moore, and the efficient assistance of the teachers, this Sunday School is doing excellent work and making rapid progress. The officers and teachers and the little children were invited to Oakmoore in the afternoon where they spent a delightful hour at an Easter Egg hunt.

ANITAS

At Temple Theatre March 29th. Last Number Of Lyceum Course

This promises to be the best of the season. You will miss a treat if you miss the Anitas.

They present a program with good variety, both instrumental and vocal. Miss Dunbar's interpretations of "A Child's Dream of a Star," is fine.

The Opera house is now clean and new. The new piano will be used for the first time. Take it all in, everything is ready for a fine evening of music and story.

Popular prices.

The Confederate veterans of the county will meet at the City hall in Madisonville Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock to select delegates to attend the reunion in May.

Carr-Williams

A. F. "Nannie" Williams and Mrs. Elma Carr, of this city were married Saturday night. They are both well known in this city where they will reside in the future.

INDIGESTION ENDED, STOMACH FEELS FINE

"Pape's Diaepsin" fixes sour, gassy, upset Stomachs in five minutes

Mrs. Mattie Mason.

Mrs. Mattie Daves Mason, formerly of this city, died at her home in Pittsburg, Pa., last Friday night, following an illness of several months. Mrs. Mason was the wife of Prof. Mason. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Daves, of Arkansas, and resided in this city for several years, where she was well known. She taught in the county school here prior to her marriage. For the past fifteen years she has resided in Pittsburg. Interment took place in Pittsburg.

If you stomach is in a continuous revolt—if you can't get it regulated, please, for your sake, try Pape's Diaepsin. It's so needless to have a bad stomach—make your next meal a favorite food meal, then take a little Diaepsin. There will not be any distress—eat without fear. It's because Pape's Diaepsin "really does" regulate weak, out-of-order stomachs that gives it millions of sales annually.

Get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diaepsin from any drug store. It is the quickest, surest stomach relief and cure known. It acts almost like magic—it is a scientific, harmless and pleasant stomach preparation which truly belongs in every home

K. P. LODGE.

Have interesting Session. Degree Work Done. Several Madisonville and St. Charles Members Were Present.

The Knights of Pythias Lodge No. 84, held a very interesting session last night. New members were received and quite a number of Madisonville and St. Charles members were present.

A very nice luncheon was served. This Lodge is taking on new life. There are new members being made every meeting night and lots of members that had fallen behind in their dues have renewed and they meet every Monday night and visiting members are invited to come up when in the city.

Fred Hoffman For County Clerk

In the announcement column of this issue will be found the name of Fred Hoffman for the office of County Court Clerk. He was born and reared in this country at Dayton, one of the strongholds of Democracy in the county and always has been an uncompromising Democrat. He married into one of the first families of the county; the daughter of Esquire Sisk and sister of our townsmen Dr. A. O. Sisk. He moved to Madisonville five years ago and is now engaged in the grocery business, and has made a success of it. He was elected to the city council of Madisonville at the last election by a flattering vote. He has always let the people know where he stood on any question and has the respect and good will of every one that has ever had any business dealings with him. If he is selected to fill this important office there is no question as to his qualifications to fill it and he will be a servant of all the people and the democrats of the county can find no better man to run for the office and one that will take more interest in the success of the entire ticket than he will and be more ready to fight for every nominee on the democratic ticket. He will endeavor to see every voter in the county and will spare no time or expense to do so, but should he not see you he asks you to take his claims under consideration and to investigate his qualifications and fitness for the office. He taught school in this county for a number of years and is a graduate of Draughons Business College. If you find that he is in every way qualified to fill that office, to give his claims consideration and vote for him in the August primary.

UGH! HOW CHILDREN HATE CASTOR OIL

Delicious "Syrup of Figs" best to cleanse their little clogged bowels

Mrs. Mattie Mason.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the physic that mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. The day of harsh physic is over. We don't force the liver and 30 feet of bowels now; we coax them. We have no dreaded after effects. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their little stomachs and tender bowels are injured by them.

If your child is fretful, peevish, half sick, stomach sour, breath feverish and its little system full of cold, has diarrhoea, sore throat, stomach-ache; doesn't eat or rest well—remember—look at the tongue, if coated, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, then don't worry, because you surely will have a well, smiling child in a few hours.

Syrup of Figs being composed entirely of succulent figs, senna and aromatics simply cannot be harmful. It sweetens the stomach, makes the liver active and thoroughly cleanses the little one's waste-clogged bowels. In a few hours all sour bile, undigested fermenting food and constipated waste matter gently moves on and out of the system without griping or nausea.

Directions for children of all ages, also for grown ups, plainly printed on the package.

By all means get the genuine. Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna" prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. Accept nothing else.

John W. Vogel's Big City Minstrels

John W. Vogel's Big City Minstrels will be seen at the Temple Theatre, Mar. 31st. The company is half a hundred strong and boasts of a roster second to none. Manager Vogel's reputation for being standard bearer is enough to satisfy us that the performance will be in keeping with the heralding. The Radium Palace, a new and very elaborate first part setting, will be presented here for the first time, and it is said to be the most beautiful and costly affair ever used by any theatrical company in this or any other company.

The advance sale of tickets will be put on at Longs Bon Ton Bakery in due time.

Never can tell when you'll mash a finger or suffer a cut, bruise, burn or scald. Be prepared. Thousands rely on Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil You druggist sells it. 25c and 50c.

The work on the ceiling of the Christian Church has been completed and it is stronger than ever.

Lucia Littlepage, of Mortons Gap, was in the city Saturday afternoon.

Both of the moving picture shows are drawing good houses. They are both first class shows and have splendid service.

E. F. Douda who has been in Paducah and other cities for the past week has returned home.

Several of the teachers of this city will attend the Convention in Louisville in April 30 to May 8.

Sam Offitt and Perkin Adams, of Earlington, spent Sunday in the city with their families.

Jim Brown was seen with a smile on his face Monday. We wonder why.

Don't forget the supper Friday night at the Armory.

Nebo Notes

Delicious "Syrup of Figs" best to cleanse their little clogged bowels

After suffering several months from tuberculosis, Robert Cates, of near Nebo died Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock at his mother's home, Mrs. Mary Lee Cates. He was twenty years, five months and nineteen days old, a model boy. He leaves a mother, two brothers Jimmie, and Ross, two sisters Mrs. D. F. Morrow, of Earlington, and Miss Tina Cates. Funeral services at the M. E. church were conducted by Rev. L. W. Turner, of Providence, after which he was buried in Union cemetery Wednesday. Many beautiful floral designs bore mute evidence of the love of his many friends.

Miss Carrie Miller and Mrs. Elsie Climer, of Madisonville attended the funeral services of Robert Cates Wednesday.

The St. Louis Bargain store near the depot, L. D. Jones, proprietor, is now located in North Nebo in the residence of the proprietor L. D. Jones. The sales at his store is now going on as usual. The store house on the railroad is now vacant.

Mrs. Bell Hobgood, on East Main Street is very sick.

Aunt Margaret Morton, a respectable and much loved colored woman died Friday night. Aunt Margaret's skin was black, but her life was a white one. When the Imperial factory was burned, her neat home was burned also, and she never recovered from the depression of spirits and the shock brought on the trouble with her heart which ended her life. In antebellum days she was a slave of Mrs. E. H. Nisbet and to that family she was ever devoted. She was sixty-five years old and a member of the Baptist church.

John Hoffman, spent Thursday and Friday in Hopkinsville.

Mrs. J. F. Hill, of Collierville had her millinery opening Wednesday and her display of head gear were both beautiful to look at, and reasonable in prices. So, that's the place to buy your hat.

Six ladies and one man were here last week and canvassed the town in the interest of the Calumet baking powder. We don't think they missed a house and we don't think a housekeeper refused to sign up for a pound of baking powder, after seeing the agent beat up some of the powder in a half glass of water, which no housewife had ever thought of doing before. So the two favorite grocerymen, J. T. Ligon and C. S. Hoffman have each received a barrel of the baking powder.

Mrs. Hannah Hill, is quite sick at this writing.

Mrs. J. D. Lynch, of the country is in a very serious condition with smothering spells and heart trouble. Sidney Harris and Ebeneezer Porter, two of our boys who have been attending school at Berea College, returned home Saturday night.

Rev. J. M. Cook, of Madisonville has been employed to preach at Rose Creek church beginning the first Sunday in May. He has been preaching at the C. P. church here on the first Sunday, but after May he will preach only at night here on the 1st.

Bro. T. D. Moore (not Rev.) filled his regular appointment at the Christian church Sunday and Sunday night. Theme Sunday, "The Resurrection."

The children of the Christian Sunday school had an Easter egg hunt in Will Porter's wheat field Sunday evening.

Church Directory For Madisonville

Posey Littlepage, one of the Hustler force, in Madisonville, has gotten out a Religious Directory of that city. It contains all the church, their meeting nights and other interesting data in regard to the church in the way of church officers, Sunday school and its officers and is altogether a very interesting book of that character. It has also a list of the schools in that city and the teachers. Posey deserves a good deal of credit for his energy in getting up this church and school data.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of coughs, colds and croup. It can be depended upon. Try it. Sold by All Druggists.

MUCH INTEREST BEING DISPLAYED

In The Bee's Annual Mammoth Cave—Diamond Ring Contest

SEVERAL NEW ONES ENTER

There has been more interest displayed in the Bee's Mammoth Cave—Diamond Ring contest this year than ever before. Quite a number of the young ladies who's names were sent in have signified their willingness to work for the $100 Diamond Ring and the trip to the cave. These trips are becoming more and more popular each year and we will have on the trip next June 75 people in addition to the five young ladies who will go as guests of the Bee: It is an easy matter subscription, renewals, job printing and advertising if you go after it in earnest. Just make up your mind you are going to win this beautiful Diamond ring and the free trip to the Cave and go to work now, ask your friends to help you, get them to cut out the coupons from the paper after they come from Post Office and save them for you, ask anyone you see to subscribe for the paper and give you the $1000 votes no matter what happens, don't get discouraged. Year before last Miss Willie Jenkins, of St. Charles, had the honor of winning the highest number of votes and becoming the most popular young lady in the county.

Mrs. J. F. Hill, of Collierville had her millinery opening Wednesday and her display of head gear were both beautiful to look at, and reasonable in prices. So, that's the place to buy your hat. Better Than Ever

John W. Vogel

John W. Vogel, the celebrated Minstrel Man will be here with his peerless crew of singers, fun makers and dancers Monday night, March 31st. This will be their 17th annual tour through this state and they have had at all times good shows to crowded houses. The new management of the Temple Theatre in this city have had the Opera House overhauled and fixed up in first class condition. The show going public can rest assured that it is now, just as good as new. The new scenery and flies, new lighting arrangements makes it even better than it was when first built. All the seats have been arranged and are good as new. To those that saw the house a few weeks ago and see it now will not know that it is the same house. Messrs Rash and Southworth will have none but the best shows that can be secured in this part of the state and will do everything possible to please the public.

EASTER SUNDAY AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Sunday was a high day at the Christian church. During the preceding week the women of the church had been holding prayer meeting and each afternoon in observance of their annual week of prayer. A deep spiritual tone pervaded all these, culminating in a delightful service Sunday morning at 6:30. This service was led by Mrs. Brazelton, assisted by many others, all contributing their share of song, Bible reading and prayer toward making it a most helpful season.

At 9:30 o'clock the Bible School assembled, having the largest attendance of the quarter, 268 being present. Despite the crowded condition of the building, it was an interesting session and full of inspiration and satisfaction for Supt. Rish and all who worked faithfully for the results. It was Decision Day and in response to the appeal made by the pastor there were three additions to the church, two by confession of faith and one by letter.

A fitting climax to this service was the observance of the Lord's Supper, the entire service being a continuous one. The pastor assisted by Mr. J. R. Rash and six deacons made this a most impressive occasion.

At 7:30 in the evening the Junior Mission Band led by their efficient Superintendent Mrs. John Long rendered a pleasing program which combined the observance of the Livingstone Cemetery and Easter. They delighted a large audience of appreciative listeners.

The offerings for the entire day for which no special preparation had been made amounted to nearly one hundred dollars, being devoted to missions and current work.

Thus closed one of the most enjoyable days spent by this church for many days, and evidenced the enthusiastic and consecrated life of its membership.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ray, returned home yesterday from a visit to relatives in White Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Barnett, were in Evansville Sunday.

Hopkins county is not the only county that is suffering from an over abundance of candidates, but we have our share and then some. Some of the best men in the county want to serve the people, but not FREE GRATIS. They are very loyal for the compensation that is attached to it.

A MESSAGE

To Feeble Old People.

As one grows old the waste of the system becomes more rapid than repair, the organs act more slowly and less effectively than in youth, the circulation is poor, the blood thin and digestion weak.

Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, is the ideal strengthener and body-builder for old folks, for it contains the very elements needed to rebuild wasting tissues and replace weakness with strength. Vinol also fortifies the system against colds and thus prevents pneumonia.

A granddaughter of Alexander Hamilton, over eighty years of age, once remarked: "Vinol is a godsend to old people. Thanks to Vinol, I have a hearty appetite, sleep soundly, feel active and well. It is the finest tonic and strength-creator I have ever used."

If Vinol fails to build up the feeble old people, and create strength, we will return your money.

In addition to the private car "John Wesley," built expressly for John W. Vogel Big City Minstrels, and said to be the handsomest and costliest ever constructed for a theatrical manager, the organization requires a special baggage car for the elaborate scenery, calcium and electrical effects which will be used in their performance at Temple Theatre on Monday, March 31.

In other cities where John W. Vogel's Big City Minstrels have appeared, theatre parties have been a social feature of the event. It is a jolly way of enjoying a perfect evening, and witnessing what is said to be the best dressed and most elaborately staged minstrel performance in America. The above organization will appear at the Temple Theatre on Monday March 31.

Miss Lucy Fawcett, of the office force of the Bee, who has been sick for a few days, was able to make a visit to friends in Hopkinsville Saturday afternoon.

Miss Frony McEneen, of Sacramento arrived in the city Sunday evening to visit the family of J. C. Peyton.

Miss Mable Cliff, of Madisonville, is spending several days in the city with the family of Mr. and Mrs. John Candler.

Guy Forrester, who has been one of the Bee force for some time has accepted a position with the Hartford Republican and left for that city yesterday morning.

H. L. Sizemore, assistant State Mine Inspector left yesterday morning for a business trip to Sebree and other points in Webster and Union county.

John W. Vogel's Big City Minstrels is said to be the most conspicuous organization traveling, presenting a long and varied program, teeming with crisp bon-mots, witty flings, and new magnetic features, up-to-date, up to demand, and up to every expectation, giving equally excellent enjoyment to everybody. This company of merry-makers will appear at the Temple Theatre on Monday, March 31 and as Manager Vogel has always given the minstrel loving public a high class entertainment, the house should be packed.

Showing the Goods.

A novel mode of advertising for a wife has been adopted by an inhabitant of a provincial town in England. A photograph of the gentleman is placed in the window of a shop-keeper, and underneath is the following notice: "Wanted; a female companion to the above. Apply at this office."

New Berry in Demand.

The loganberry, a hybrid of the blackberry and raspberry, is said to make the finest of jellies, jams and pies. Introduced a few years ago in the west, its popularity has been steadily increasing, and the demand now outruns the supply. Western Oregon and Washington are the greatest producers of the new berry.

Best Known Cough Remedy

For forty-three years Dr. King's New Discovery has been known throughout the world as the most reliable cough remedy. Over three million bottles were used last year.

Isn't this proof? It will get rid of your cough, or we will refund your money. J. J. Owens, of Allendale, S. C. writes the way hundreds of others have done, "After twenty years, I find that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and colds that I have ever used!" For coughs and colds and all throat and lung troubles, it has no equal. 50c and $1.00 at all dealers.

Writing Pad.

A compact traveling case is a book-shaped writing pad, which folds over flatly, and when open reveals compartments for all the correspondence necessities, as well as a calendar and narrow slide holding memorandum slips. One of these fits nicely into a handbag.

The selection of YOUR BANK is of vastly more importance than most people think. First, of course, is safety. We think your money is perfectly safe in any bank in Hopkins County. Next to that, and almost as important, is SERVICE. A bank is not intended to be a sink hole, where the money of the people is to lie buried and become mouldy until each depositor wants to dig his up, but a bank should be a clearing house for the community. A reservoir where each responsible member of the community may not only be able to draw the money he has been striving to save, but may also know that by being a part of the organization he or she may reasonably expect to be able to draw on the institution for such a sum as may enable them to tide over a temporary difficulty, or make a profitable investment.

We are growing because we are helping OUR CUSTOMERS to GROW. Just ask your friends why they are doing business with us. WE OFFER YOU THE SAME PERSONAL INTEREST AND SERVICE.

Ballard's Snow Liniment

It is a Powerful Preventive, as Well as a Speedy Cure

Rub it on the parts affected whenever the conditions seem to indicate a spell of this painful ailment; it will warm the joints and ward off the trouble. If the disorder has already commenced, the treatment is the same, the rubbing helps the liniment to penetrate to the seat of pain. The relief is prompt and very satisfying; the aching joints are relieved, the muscles relaxed so that the sufferer feels again the strength and suppleness of youth.

For flesh wounds of all kinds, it is a wonderful remedy. Try it for cuts, burns, bruises, sores, galls, chafed spots, barbed wire cuts, sprains, swellings, frost bites. It cures quickly and completely.

Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per Bottle.

Thousands of Women

Have Been Restored to Health By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

There is no doubt about this fact. Why! during the last 30 years we have published in the newspapers of this country volumes of letters from women who have been relieved of all their suffering by the timely aid of this grand old medicine. Letters like the following, true, genuine and honest expressions of gratitude coming from grateful hearts. Surely you can believe these women.

Mrs. L. S. BRENNER, Hudson, Mich., says:

"Sometime ago I was taken with a terrible pain in my right side, such pain just like a knife sticking me. I tried hot applications but that did no good. I went to our family doctor (we were living in Fayette, Ohio, at that time) and he said it was organic inflammation. I doctor'd with him a while but kept getting worse. The pain was so terrible I could hardly stand on my feet. I would have that sharp pain in my right side, and a dull heavy pain the whole length of my limb. I realized that something had to be done quickly, so I looked up all of your advertisements I could find, and saw several that described my case. I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me from the first dose, and when I had taken two bottles my trouble was gone. Your medicine has done so much for me that I am willing to publish this letter for the sake of other suffering women."—Mrs. L. S. BRENNER, Hudson, Michigan.

Mrs. L. E. BOWERS, Girard, Pa., says:

"I take pleasure in informing you of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had a sick spell last February, and for some months after that I was not regular and had many bad feelings. I was tired all the time, had dull headaches, not much appetite, and also what the doctor called organic inflammation. Your Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me and I feel that too much cannot be said in its praise as I am now able to do my own work. You are perfectly welcome to use my testimonial for the benefit of others."—Mrs. L. E. BOWERS, R.F.D. No. 1, Girard, Pa.

Mrs. ELIZABETH GENTILCORE, Buffalo, N.Y., says:

"I feel that I must write to you about your wonderful remedies. About

THEIR DAUGHTER LUCIA

By JESSICA CARBARY.

The man was hurrying to the subway, when a child's voice called: "Daddy! Daddy!"

He turned at the second call, but he was in haste, and had not time to heed the voice that was so like that of his baby.

All the way down town the voice kept ringing in his ears, and during the day he continued to hear it, so that at three o'clock he left the office and came uptown in the hope of seeing her again.

The Clarks had been divorced two years before and he hadn't seen Lucia, their baby, since, though he, as well as his wife, had worshipped her.

One afternoon about dusk he saw her on Riverside drive. She was in front of him; slowly he followed. She was with a maid. Presently they crossed the drive, and went into an apartment house. He watched them go, then followed.

The hall was empty, save for the elevator boy.

"Does Mrs. Thomas Clark live here?" he asked anxiously.

"Yes, sir," the boy answered. "That was her little girl, Miss Lucia, I just took up."

"Thank you." And he hurried out.

For three days he pondered the situation; he had agreed to leave the child entirely to his wife, but now after two years he longed for her as he had never thought he could for

The next day he called, to be told that Miss Lucia was out.

The succeeding day he called a half hour later, to be told the same thing. As he had now no intention of giving up his quest, he continued to call each day at the same hour. On the tenth day Miss Lucia was at home.

He was shown into the library. Down on her stomach in front of the fire he found Lucia. The soft glow of the fire shone on the little figure, turning the yellow curls to gold. He watched her while she talked to a Teddy bear.

"I wonder, Teddy, why we don't find father? Mother's all right, but little girls need fathers."

The man with tears in his eyes was kneeling when she turned and saw him, and with a glad cry she came to him.

For several hours he held her tight, an exquisite joy thrilling him, and though the door opened and closed twice, he never noticed it. When he let her go, he promised her to come again next day.

That night a very happy little girl asked her mother for a story about her father, but the mother, on the plea of being very tired, refused.

After the child had gone to bed Mrs. Clark sat for a long time trying to decide what to do regarding the father whom she never wanted her child to know. At last she decided that if she allowed Lucia to do as she desired perhaps the natural perverseness of human nature would assert itself, and Lucia would not care for him at all.

"Don't you love mother now?" she asked, one day. And when he didn't reply, she put her little hand on his face to find the cheeks wet. She didn't ask any more questions, only murmured: "Daddy, I love you."

She was quite heartbroken when he told her he must go away for a couple of weeks.

He was gone much longer than he expected to be, and it was the week before Christmas when he returned. He found Lucia in the same position as the first time.

"Baby, dear," he said as he lifted her up.

They sat quietly that Mrs. Clark, coming into the room, was halfway across before she observed them. As she turned to leave he looked up and their eyes met.

A convulsive spasm of the body made the child look at him.

"Father, when are you coming home for always?"

He started and laughed harshly; then he took the bright little face in his two hands, and locked at it intently.

"I don't know, baby girl," he said, sadly, "but whenever mother will let me."

She slipped to the floor and quietly left the room.

He hardly noticed that she had gone, her question had suggested so many possibilities. Clare had looked at him.

"Father!" Two small arms were around his neck and a dear little face close to his. "My father dear!" the voice was very low, "mother says you may come home whenever you want to."

His Holiday.

Charley Sing, a Chinese gardener, peddles truck in Salt Lake City. One of his customers is a banker.

One morning Sing drove up to solicit orders for vegetables, and he found the banker working among the flowers in the yard. It was Decoration day and the bank was closed.

"You no work today?" inquired Sing.

"I should say not!" replied the banker. "This is a holiday."

"Me work all same," said Sing. "Me work all same every day 'cept Sunday afternoon."

"What do you do on Sunday afternoon, if you don't work?" inquired the banker.

"Me washes plenty shirt last all week judge." was the Chinaman's reply.

A Fine Band

Head Ender

Saturday morning about three o'clock two freights met on the main track near Crofton. Fireman Blackmore was killed and brakeman Cecil Webb was badly scalded by steam. Webb was brought to his home in this city while the body of Blackmore was carried to his home. The South bound engine had left its train in the siding and was making a run for water when they met the other freight. An official investigation will be made by the officials to fix the blame. The main track was blocked for several hours.

Vote On Whiskey In Henderson Saturday, May 31st

C. E. Sugg, Manager of the Dry forces in Henderson having secured twenty-five per cent of the legal voters to a petition, has asked Judge Young to call an election for the purpose of testing the will of the voters of that county as to whether they want it to remain wet or go dry. There has been quite a good deal of interest in this question in the city of Henderson for several weeks and the feeling on both sides is very strong.

Earlington, Ky., March 21, 1913.

According to the doctors of Earlington, Ky., who have waited on Lizzie B. Miller and their suggestion is that she has to be quiet and not be disturbed in any way and under those circumstances her husband, George Miller, thought best to get rid of the peace breakers in Earlington, Ky., who would slip in his house when he was at his daily occupation and keep her mind illustrated by different things. It is best to let her move home with her mother and father; that she should continue to live happy and that would cut off the peace breakers who always had tales to tell and not a word of prayer for them, he will take care of Mrs. Miller, also his son, Willie Miller and his daughter, Violet Miller just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hargraves were visiting in Hopkinsville last Sunday. They report a very pleasant trip and a nice contribution on the rally card.

Mrs. Leonard Porter entertained at dinner Easter Sunday. Misses M. M. Williams and Bethel Davis teachers in the public school. Quite an elaborate and appetizing dinner was prepared for them by the hostess. They spent a most enjoyable afternoon.

Very large and appreciative audience were present to witness the rendition of the Easter program at both the A. M. E. Z. church and the Baptist church.

Rev. P. W. Garrett held his rally last Sunday. Rev. R. W. Chunn preached for him in the afternoon.

The clubs wish to thank the public for the liberal patronage given.
